News Release:
Harbour Divestiture Negotiations Continue

Release: February 25, 2010

The Municipality of Central Elgin and Transport Canada are continuing negotiations for the divestiture of Port Stanley Harbour to the Municipality. "Central Elgin continues to pursue the best possible deal for the Municipality," says Deputy Mayor Tom Marks. "We are not where we thought we would be but should have more to report in another month's time," he added.

The Municipality of Central Elgin will have a further statement within four weeks.
